Kingdom value or skill you hope to see developed: Join our community for an event (Bible study, cookout, etc.)

Who this is for: New students

Desired impact on disciples: They get involved and commit to the group

Desired impact on campus/others: We are connected to new networks via the new students

Hear the word

John 1:42-48

The next day Jesus decided to leave for Galilee. Finding Philip, he said to him, "Follow me." Philip, like Andrew and Peter, was from the town of Bethsaida. Philip found Nathanael and told him, "We have found the one Moses wrote about in the Law, and about whom the prophets also wrote—Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph."

"Nazareth! Can anything good come from there?" Nathanael asked.

"Come and see," said Philip.

When Jesus saw Nathanael approaching, he said of him, "Here truly is an Israelite in whom there is no deceit."

"How do you know me?" Nathanael asked.

Jesus answered, "I saw you while you were still under the fig tree before Philip called you."

What do you like about this?

In the Bible, a man named Philip invites his friend to "come and see" more about Jesus.

We want to invite you to come and see who Jesus is, and who our community is.

We have some great opportunities to join our community (share next event).

Respond actively

Would you join us and invite two friends to come and see with you?

Who would you like to invite?

Can I check in and hear about how that goes? (Get contact info)

Debrief and Interpret

Later that day: text/email, sharing excitement about meeting them and asking how inviting is going.

When they come to an event: Celebrate that they are there! Ask: How did your friends respond to the invitation?

Expand the influence

What responsibilities can you give them? Keep coaching in inviting.
