

Responding to the Holy Spirit

Kingdom value or skill you hope to see developed: Greater awareness of the Holy Spirit speaking

Who this is for: Seekers & Christians

Desired impact on disciples: Greater dependence on God, hearing God

Desired impact on campus/home/others: opportunities to be brought into God's plan

Hear the word

Acts 1:3-8

After his suffering, he presented himself to them and gave many convincing proofs that he was alive. He appeared to them over a period of forty days and spoke about the kingdom of God. On one occasion, while he was eating with them, he gave them this command: "Do not leave Jerusalem, but wait for the gift my Father promised, which you have heard me speak about. For John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit." Then they gathered around him and asked him, "Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?"

He said to them: "It is not for you to know the times or dates the Father has set by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."

- Who is the Holy Spirit?
- What can we learn about partnership with Jesus in this passage?

Respond actively

Pray for the Holy Spirit to reveal opportunities to partner with Jesus this semester. As a group, pray specifically for any planned events. Individually pray to be open to the Holy Spirit's prompting this week.

Debrief and Interpret

- Did you notice any new opportunities this week? How did you respond?
- What are challenges to hearing the Holy Spirit?
- How can you be open in the future?

Expand the influence

Put a daily prayer time in your schedule